

PREP REPORT

Legaux leads Karr to victory over Higgins

Quarterback passes, runs as Cougars take 20-7 triumph

By Pierce W. Huff
Staff writer

Karr quarterback Munchie Legaux was a spectator who walked up and down the sideline with his helmet off and a relaxed smile in the second half against Higgins in the West Bank Jamboree on Friday.

After all, one half was all it took for Legaux to show that he is ready to have a big season.

Legaux, a 6-foot-4, 185-pound senior, rushed for 65 yards and a touchdown and passed for 36 yards and two touchdowns in the first half to lead Karr to a 20-7 victory.

"I think we're all ready for the season, not just me," Legaux said.

SUSAN POAG / THE TIMES-PICAYUNE

Shaw's Christian D'Aquin, left, tackles John Ehret's Kaleb Johnson during the West Bank Jamboree game on Friday at Hoss Memtsas Stadium.

Karr played its starters in the first half of the jamboree and reserves in the second half.

Higgins' miscues staked Karr to an early lead. The Hurricanes had two fumbles on their first two possessions. Legaux led Karr on a five-play, 20-yard touchdown drive after a Higgins fumble on the first offensive play of the game. Legaux ended the possession with a 1-yard sneak on fourth-and-goal, which made the score 6-0. The extra-point attempt was blocked.

Karr increased its lead to 14-0 when Legaux led the Cougars on a seven-play, 38-yard drive after Higgins' second fumble. Legaux ended the drive with a 13-yard pass to Keenan Canty, who made a leaping catch in the corner of the end zone. Legaux passed to Kenneth Gausman for the two-point conversion.

Legaux gave Karr a 20-0 lead with 3:34 remaining in the half when he threw a 4-yard touchdown pass to Canty, who was wide open on a slant route. The extra-point kick was blocked.

"I thought Munchie played pretty good, but I was more impressed with our offensive line," Karr Coach Jabbar Juluke said.

SHAW 28 vs. JOHN EHRET 6: Eagles running backs Lawrence Breaud and Chris Current ran roughshod over the Patriots in the first half of the second game of the jamboree.

Breaud, a 5-foot-10, 185-pound junior, rushed for 87 yards and two touchdowns on nine carries. Current, a 5-10, 175-pound senior, rushed for 77 yards and one touchdown on 11 carries.

Shaw led 7-0 lead when Breaud ran up the middle and cut to the sideline for a 20-yard touchdown on the Eagles' first possession. Current darted up the middle for a 5-yard touchdown on the Eagles' second possession of the half to make the score 14-0.

Breaud made the score 21-0 when he muscled his way up the middle for a 4-yard touchdown with 1:27 remaining in the half.

John Ehret's Anthony Garrison cut the lead to 21-6 when he returned the ensuing kickoff 97 yards for a touchdown.

Shaw defensive back Anthony Hughes finished the scoring with a 52-yard interception return for a touchdown on the second half.

WEST JEFFERSON 20 vs. SHAW 14: Quarterback Shaw ran for a 7-yard touchdown and a 48 seconds remaining interception to give the Buccaneers a victory in the first game of the jamboree.

Running back Jerome Cox ran for the two-point conversion.

Cox running back Johnson ran for a 7-yard touchdown to give the Cougars a 7-0 lead with 2:41 remaining in the half. Johnson began the second half with a five-play, 74-yard touchdown drive to take a 7-6 lead. Brister had a 2-yard touchdown run up the middle, and Antoine kicked the extra point.

West Jefferson's Coleman returned the kickoff 91 yards for a touchdown to give the Buccaneers a 14-7 lead. Hoyer threw a touchdown pass on the two-point conversion.

Pierce W. Huff can be reached at phuff@timespicayune.com or 504.826.3787.