

Natalie Derham entered the world of education in 1999 as a science teacher and has been involved in education ever since. She has taught chemistry and other sciences as well as ACT prep and other electives. Mrs. Derham is happy assist students and parents as the college counselor at Edna Karr.