

Mr. T. Waller is originally from the Mississippi coast and recently moved to New Orleans to teach. Previously, he spent 7 years in the Moss Point School District working in their public relations office as the Graphics and Production Specialist. He also taught 2 years in the Pascagoula Public School District teaching English and Choir. He has a Bachelors Degree in English and is pursuing a Masters in Educational Administration.