

Donna Barron King serves as a Master Teacher for the Teacher Advancement Program at Edna Karr High School. She works with both faculty and students in the content area of Mathematics. Ms. King has taught in the New Orleans area for 25 years, primarily at McMain Magnet Secondary School as well as Delgado Community College. She holds a Bachelor of Science degree from the University of Arkansas as well as a Masters degree from Arkansas State Teachers College. Ms. King also volunteers her time to work with female inmates at Jefferson Parish Correctional Center.